Thuir Jenna Mhoireasdan, Oifigear Leasachaidh nan Eilean Siar airson Fèisean nan Gàidheal: “Tha sinn airson cothrom a thoirt do dh'òigridh na sgìre coinneachadh le chèile anns a' choimhearsnachd airson pàirt a ghabhail ann bùthan-obrach a tha sinn an dòchas a chòrdas riutha. Tha mi air a bhith ag obair gu dlùth le Màiri Anna Chaimbeul, Oifigear Iomairtean Cànan, Comunn na Gàidhlig agus Marion NicMhathain, Oifigear Òigridh na sgìre airson a' phròiseact seo a thoirt gu buil. Nar cuid obrach tha prìomhachas againn gus taic a chumail ris an òigridh agus a bhith gam brosnachadh ann an iomadh chuspair. Ach, tha dleastanas againn cuideachd a' Ghàidhlig a chumail beò sa choimhearsnachd agus tha e cudromach gu bheil ar cànan aig cridhe nan tachartasan a bhios sinn a cur air bhonn.”

Ma tha tuilleadh fiosrachaidh a dhìth oirbh neo ma tha sibh ag iarraidh foirm-iarrtais chan eil agaibh ach fios a chur gu Marion NicMhathain air 01878 700200 neo theirig gu làrach-lìn Fèisean nan Gàidheal

NEW OPPORTUNITIES IN THE ARTS FOR UIST YOUTH

25 October 2010

The following workshops will be available to participants in S1 – S6 of secondary school; Bagpipes, Fiddle, Gàidhlig song, Photography and Street Dance. Although all aspects of the project will be delivered in Gaelic a warm welcome awaits anyone wishing to attend.

Jenna Morrison, Western Isles Development Officer for Fèisean nan Gàidheal said: “We would like to bring a number of young people together to share in a range of activities that we hope they will enjoy. I have had the privilege of working alongside two other Development Officers to carry this project forward - Mary Ann Campbell, Gaelic Language officer employed by Comunn na Gàidhlig and Marion Matheson, Youth Development officer for the area. As part of our remit, we aim to support young people’s development in the arts but we also recognise that through our activities, we can encourage young people to listen to and speak Gaelic to each other to help maintain the language within the community.”

For further information or an application form please contact Marion Matheson on 01878 700200 or download an application form from Fèisean nan Gàidheal’s website at www.feisean.org/news.html <<http://www.feisean.org/news.html>>

An evening meal will be provided on Friday after school and a bus will be arranged to take participants home in the evening. Lunch will also be provided on Saturday afternoon but participants are asked to make their own travel arrangements to and from Linicleit School on Saturday.
